

Insworld Institute is a secondary school in Singapore teaching local and international students a British curriculum, adapted to suit the needs of the international learner.

We work only with small class sizes (4-12 students), allowing us to focus the needs of each individual learner.

FORM TEACHER (JUNIOR SECONDARY LEVEL)

Duties & Responsibilities

Primary Role

- Teach Biology, Chemistry and Physics (single subjects), Mathematics, Humanities at Junior Secondary level
- Maintain attendance and achievement and class management records
- Provide regular reports on student performance
- Attend meetings to review performance

Additional Responsibilities

- Help maintain high levels of student discipline
- Implement strategies to help ensure students achieve the best possible examination results
- Take an active role in the welfare of students at the school
- Take an active role in extra-curricular activities
- Be available to give extra tuition to students who require this assistance
- Undertake any other duties as directed

Qualifications and Experience

Essential

- A university honours degree or valid teaching qualification.
- Relevant and recent experience as a classroom teacher.

Desirable

- Experience of teaching Pearson Edexcel programmes
- Experience of teaching international students using English as the medium of instruction
- Experience of providing English Language support for international students

Interested applicants kindly send your resume to hrm@insworld.edu.sg

(We thank you for your application and regret that only shortlisted candidates will be notified)